REVENUE DEPT.

His Excellency

The Right Honourable

the Governor in Council of North Saint George.

May it please your excellency to condescend to the humble prayer of one S. Ahoonachelam Esq. a pleader at Tirunavundi Tanjore District.

With full and due obedience to your excellency I humbly beg to bring to your excellency's consideration the matter of my case before having submitted my difficulties in the matter of my other cases in Tirunavundi and Cheennargudy taluks for purposes of to be planted and cultivation whereupon endorsement 356 R of 1897 Revenue Department was graciously despatched to me directing to annex the petitions to local and controlling authorities respectively, along with the answers or orders of those authorities the documents which are in my possession now, though I am now unable to produce my exhibits to the Board of Revenue at Cheennargudy in my appeal, as the Board has refused possession of my exhibits though I have sent them along with my appeal upon ~~the~~ I humbly pray your excellency that the documents hereunder submitted may be annexed to my petition. These are marked A A A I I I I I &c as my documents to the Revenue Board are marked with Alphabets.

These documents will show that I have invariably applied in my cases to local authority, and also to controlling authority in some.

I earnestly entreat for my redress from your excellency on the matters above mentioned upon and submit to you of all the original papers concerning my other cases called for your excellency's perusal from the local and controlling authorities, and my petition referred to in endorsement no 356 R of 1897.
