The peti. states as follows:-

In 1892 the village Munsif of the peti. village without the knowledge of the peti. appropriated to himself the first instalment of the Abkani revenue collection. The late Tehsildar thereupon unjustly inculpated the peti. by introducing his name in this affair and in 1894 the Magistrate sentenced the peti. to pay a fine of Rs. 200 and to undergo imprisonment for 3 months. The peti. in consequence lost his appointment too. On 11.3.92 the peti. in the absence of the village Munsif issued a receipt for Rs. 2 paid by one who darkhast for 6 trees. This amount he paid to the Munsif who however did not pay it into the treasury. The village Munsif is guilty of making false entries into the Gouthi accounts. On the strength of his deposition the peti. was punished by the Dy. Magistrate. The peti. applied for copies of the records in his case which were not granted to him. In 1892 the rules relating to the mode of collecting the above revenue were not made known very widely and the Tehsildar in order to have himself exonerated from the blame of allowing the collections to accumulate till the year 1894 made his clerk give false depositions
