PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read again G.O. No. 376 Judicial dated 17th March 1897.
Read the following paper:—

From the Collector of Kistna No. 13 Coufl. Dated 26th

March 1897:—

Replying to G.O. No. 376 Judicial dated the 17th March 1897 I have the honour to say, that there is no necessity for a special officer to be deputed to assist in investigating the cases of supposed bribery referred to in my letter No. 20 dated the 25th February 1897.

2. The cases in which identification can, any possibility be arrived at are only six, of which in two the recipients are dead, another case that of Kambhampati Purniah, No. 2 in the list in para 7 of my letter has been referred to the Divisional officer for necessary action; and two others are persons who receive mere "tips" of a rupee or two; and the remaining case of Manepalli Nagabhushana will be reported to the Board immediately.

3. The statement at the end of para 5 of my letter is of course mere hearsay, without a shred of evidence in support of it; nor could any inquiry now elicit any evidence.

4. The Sessions Judge has this day delivered judgment in Adusumali Subramanyam's case appeal. The two last courts which dealt with presents of Rs: 2 and Rs: 3 to peons were abandoned by the Public Prosecutor; the conviction on the first count of having given an illegal gratification of Rs: 50 to a Taluk Gunasta was affirmed and the sentence modified, the imprisonment being cancelled in toto, and a fine of Rs: 1000 imposed.
