Note for the Head Clerk.

I beg respectfully to submit that the telegram in question was received late in the evening of the 14th instant, by which time the Secy had left office. As that day was the last working day, before the Easter holidays, in the Madras Office and as the paper being urgent, I immediately registered the it and sent to Mr Singaravelu Mudaliar. In these circumstances I beg I may be excused.

ately put up the draft order, and in the absence of the First Assistant who had left for Ooty some time before, I wanted to send on the paper to the Secretary. Having however, learnt that he had left office, I put it in an urgent pad and arranged for its despatch to Ooty.

Note to the Head Clerk, Public Dept

Note for H.C.
R.D.

I am sorry I am not aware of the exact circumstances under which this came into our office. Don't I believe all telegrams from the S of S go to H.C. the Governor whose P.S. sends them to the secretaries concerned.
In this case he might have sent to us. What must have gone to R.D. and Mr. Clerk received this mistake. ^{In this case C.S. does not see.} If necessary the matter will be referred to him.

Note for the Secretary.

The Secretary directed that an explanation should be furnished as to ~~how~~ ^{from} the telegram from the Secretary of State and G.O. No 2049 of 22-4-97 came to be registered in the office without the Chief Secretary or the Revenue Secretary having first seen it.

It is submitted that all telegrams from the Secretary of State first go to H.E. the Governor and are then sent on by the Private Secretary to the sep.^l concerned. The telegram in question appears to have been received in the Chief Secretary's office and transferred to the Revenue sep.^l on the 14th ult. as the Secretary had left office on the 13th, and as it was the working day before the Easter holidays, the telegram was registered and then sent on.

As far as the Office is concerned the explanation is satisfactory.
