OFFICE NOTE No. 27

For St George Dated 8th April 1897.

From

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, REVENUE DEPARTMENT,

To

THE Chief Secretary.

Attention is invited to the Revenue Department office note of the 31st ultims (tagged to this) in which it is suggested that the Revenue Department should communicate direct with the Sanitary Commissioner in famine matters in order to avoid delays which unavoidably occur when orders are communicated to him through another department. The undersigned will be glad to know if there is any objection to the adoption of the suggestion.

sd/ G. Stokes
Revenue Secretary.

NOTE FOR THE SECRETARY
But our point is that it causes delay to communicate our orders & receive his letters through another Dept, and that it will facilitate correspondence in famine matters if we could communicate with him direct.
This point is not referred to in Mr. C.S.'s office note. May we not draw his attention to the point & ask if he agrees with the proposal?

The point is not drawn to his attention to the point of in famine matters. Mr. Stokes is in favour of it.
