Resolution

The attention of the Collector of Cuddapah is drawn to an article in page 5 of the Madras Mail, ~~dated~~ of Friday April 2nd 1897, extracts of which are ^{enclosed} ~~quoted below~~.

The points touched upon in the earlier part of the article, have already received consideration, and orders have been issued concerning them. The condition of the relief workers is likely to be ^{considerably} ameliorated by the orders issued in G. O. ²¹⁶ 46/97 communicated in Board's Proceedings 278 dated 3. 4. 97. and the Collector is requested to see that the instructions therein given are followed at once. The provision of huts for labourers, while actually at work, has been ordered to be discontinued in Board's Proceedings 273/97.

2. ^{Assuming} ~~Assuming~~ the statements in the Madras mail to be true, the arrangements for the relief of weavers appear to be inadequate. It is not creditable to the local administration that the delays now reported in making payments should exist. Had the Collector or Divisional officer paid more attention to the working of this form of relief, the insufficiency of the establishment must have attracted their notice, and application should have been made for the entertainment of a larger establishment. The Collector will now, in communication with the Special Officer deputed for weavers' relief, submit submit proposals for increasing the establishment to such an extent as to ensure the proper working of the scheme.

3. The Collector will report by return, whether the reason assigned by the Madras Mail Correspondent for the failure to provide suitable scales and weights is correct.

4. He has already been directed in Board's Proceedings no. $\frac{2397}{3013/97}$ to give up the 16 hours day. A revised task table, not more severe than the Adoni table, should be prepared as early as possible in accordance with the orders issued in G.O. ²¹⁶ 216/97.
