GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble P. RAJARATNA MUDALIYAR, Dewan Bahadur, Inspector-General of Registration, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 19th October 1897, G. No. 6487.

The District Registrar of Coimbatore reports that the original registration work of his office (2,048 registrations in 1896–97) is too heavy to leave him sufficient time for the general supervision of the district, and proposes the transfer of the marginally-noted four villages from his jurisdiction to that of the Sub-Registrar of Ganapati, whose work is light at present (1,516 registrations in 1896–97). The effect of the proposed transfer on the work of the two offices is as shown below :—

Kurichi.	Singanallur.
Ramanadapuram.	Vellalur.

	Number of Registrations.
	Before the transfer.	In the village to be transferred.	After the transfer.
Coimbatore	2,048	710	1,338
Ganapati	1,516	710	2,226

2. The head-quarters of the Ganapati Sub-district is in the Coimbatore town itself, about two or three furlongs from the Registrar's office, and as such the transfer of the villages can in no way be inconvenient to the registering public.

3. In these circumstances, I have the honour to recommend that Government may be pleased to sanction, with effect from 1st January 1898, the transfer of the above-mentioned villages from the sub-district of Coimbatore to that of Ganapati. The usual draft of notification is herewith submitted for approval and publication in the Fort St. George and Coimbatore District Gazettes.

Enclosure.

Notification.

Under the provisions of section 5 of the Indian Registration Act III of 1877, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that, from and after the 1st January 1898, the villages of Kurichi, Ramanadapuram, Singanallur and Vellalur, which now form part of the registration sub-district of Coimbatore, be transferred to, and form part of. the registration sub-district of Ganapati, in the Coimbatore district. The limits of the villages shall be the limits which shall, from time to time, be determined for administrative purposes.

Order—No. 1528, Judicial, dated 28th October 1897.

The draft notification is approved and will be published in the Fort St. George and Coimbatore District Gazettes.
