The petitioner states as follows

He was a petty trader of Tirupatoor. He is 76 years old. An income tax of Rs. (42) forty-two was imposed on him. He does not now carry on any business being infirm and old. He lost his son who was doing his business. He has rented his bazaars. Cultivation is his present means of livlihood.

On presenting an objection petition to the Tahsildar, he reduced the tax from Rs. 42 to 28.

Inasmuch as the petr. does not trade at all for the past one year, he appealed to the Head Assistant Collector against the Tahsildar's order. The former being displeased with the petr. on account of his refusal to remove a door-way, confirmed the tax without perusing the records.

Prays for the cancellment of the tax, after calling for the records or directing the authorities to inquire into the case de novo.
