PETITION

REVENUE DEPT.

Rest

His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir Arthur Elihuart Havelock, K.C., K.G.M.B.; Governor-in-Council,
Fort St. George,
Madras.

Most humbly and respectfully sheweth; We, the undersigned tradesmen of Jammalamadugu, Jammalamadugu Taluk in Cuddalore District, most humbly and respectfully beg leave to acknowledge the receipt of endorsement, R. No 1933 dated 26 October 1897 Revenue Department, Govt of Madras favored to us in reply to the Memorial submitted to your Excellency in October 1897.

2. We beg to say for that some of your Excellency's Memorialists mentioned below were assessed to the income tax for 1896-97 by the Tahsildar of the Taluk:

objection petitions to the Tahsildar - explaining to that officer that their trade does not make them liable to the payment of a tax; but before they were called in to state their say and before the issue of any notice or other order - peremptory and stringent measures are being adopted for the collection of the tax and there has been left no other course to them than to lay at Your Excellency's feet their melancholy tale.
The Memorialists would have approached Your Excellency through proper channel to obtain redress of grievances in a calm season; but seeing the present state of things they have considered that the only course of safety was to lay their case before Your Excellency without loss of time.

(3)

(3) Yemankham

(4) D. Venkata Subbarao

(5) K. Perikala.

5. Your Excellency's Memorialists beg permission to repeat that strict orders are being enforced for the collection of the tax, and as it takes a great deal of time to lay before Your Excellency the case of every one of the Memorialists with copies of the decision of the local and Controlling authorities, we have submitted in original the orders we were favoured with by the local authority as mentioned in para 2 of this Memorial. We beg to state that we will submit such copies of the local and Controlling authorities as we obtain hereafter. In the mean while, we pray that our earnest prayer - may be granted by Your Excellency by the issue of immediate orders by wire to the Tahsildar to stop the collection of the tax till our fate is finally disposed of by a Controlling authority.

Taluk, and our representations to that officer by objection petitions in time were rejected without hearing us on the score that your Excellency's Memorialists were not present to the case of that officer in Court, although in fact, we were attending his Court in answer to the notices issued by him. This fact, we are ready to prove by witnesses: and we beg to submit Copies, marked, (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) & (f) of the orders of the Tahsildar rejecting our petitions on this score. From this procedure on the part of the taluk authority with whom we have to deal with directly, it will be easy for inference by your Excellency how justice was irregularly administered in our case by the Tahsildar and how we were selected for the imposition of the tax though we carried no trade worth the name.

- (b) Challa Ramanniah.
- (c) Nagluri Venkataraddi.
- (d) Vachanala Nayanalappa.
- (e) Kuntamalla Rangappa.
- (f) Daggilai Naraina Row & Singamallu's Jaggaiah.

3. Your Excellency's Memorialists named below this para were selected for and recommended by our immediate addressing of authority, namely, the Tahsildar as being the persons fit to be taxed within the competence of the Deputy Collector, though in fact these men shared similar misfortunes on account of famine with the other Memorialists and carried no trade liable to a tax. The Deputy Collector has reduced the tax in the case of the first two men and confirmed the tax of the third Memorialist. Copies of the orders passed by the Deputy Collector will be submitted to your Excellency in due course as his decision is not in consonance with the real state of things.

- (1) Doga Godi Sashayiri Row.
- (2) Mahaimthar Venkatasubbarow.
- (3) Karnata Venkatapathi.

4. Your Excellency's Memorialists named in this para have submitted in time

We beg to remain,

Your Excellency's most humble, obedient and loyal tradesmen.
