The Pet. states as follows:-

The Board of Rev. agreed with the Col. & placed no reliance on the alleged partition bet. pet. & his father & dismissed the former's appeal & gave him the post of Munsif of the villages comprised in Schampattu Group. The Col. did believe the partition to be a bona fide transaction. For in the Col's proceedings (246) he has simply stated that pet. shd not assume the office & do the duty, connection thereof during the lifetime of the pet's father. The Bd. rejected the pet's appeal on the ground that stated above. The Govt. ordered the Bd. to revise their Prop. When pet. has put in a review pet., it was also rejected not on the ground of 'partiality' but on merits.

Pet. quotes a parallel instance of ~~one~~ Swami Aggar,
another person now in office. On the latter's promotion of last year
- than I did betwixt him & his father, a disreputable official, he was given appt.

Prays that the Household of the aforesaid village be conferred on Petr.
