certainly, in at least, the least position of managing on, from hand to mouth, in these hard & famine times, had the Relief Road works been continued on, but that even being most unexpectedly, put a stop to, by Govt. our daily subsistence for future & present livelihood, has, we regret, very much to caution, here, come to a dead stand still.
The only result of that would be nothing more than sheer starvation.
