PETITION

REVENUE DEPT.

The Honorable Mr. G. Stokes, J.C.S., Secretary to Government,
Revenue Department,
Madras.

The humble petition of V. Gnanasomani Nadar, A.A., Toppakulam, Tichempally.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That ^{as} the particulars of the petitioner's connection with the Provincial Civil Service Examination have already been brought before the gracious notice of Government, he does not trouble Government by repeating them now.

2. That although Government has not been pleased to consider that petitioner deserves a ^{Probationary} Collector's post, yet the fact that his name has been registered (even if the registration does not guarantee an appointment to petitioner) shews, he ventures to think, that his case has been considered somewhat special.

3. That petitioner is already in permanent Government Service.

4. That, under the above circumstances, petitioner most humbly prays that Government will be graciously pleased to permit him to compete once more for the Provincial Civil Service, although he will complete his 25th year on the 22nd June 1897.

Toppakulam,
Tichempally
19th April 1897

Your humble and most obedient servant,
V. Gnanasomani.
