The petns. state as follows:-

D. Venkata krishna Rao, Tasildar of Amalapuram taluk, receives from each ryot of every village in his taluk, a putty (800 seers) of grain and kayf compulsion. He has thus obtained two hundred putties of grain on the whole. He has obtained a loan of Rs. (1,000) one thousand from Sowkars (money-lenders) and Rs. (2,000) two thousand as bribe on the plea that he lost his wife and is going to marry for that purpose he another. He has further received a sum of Rs. (350) three hundred & fifty from the Comities (trading classes) of Amalapuram. He increases the income-tax of those who do not bribe him, and collects the same unjustly. He demanded a bribe of Rs. (200) two hundred from all the Comities of Gangala-kurti & Praharam

& they paid him only twenty (20) Rs; he has imposed a tax on them, though they do not carry on any trade. He received money from some Karnams on the ground that they are unfit for service & that they will be recommended for removal. The Tahsildar received a bribe of Rs. (65) in the case of Ambajipeta Karnam; the permanent incumbent having been suspended & another appointed in his place. the latter bribed the tasildar. As the harvest season is fast approaching Tahr. is troubling the ryots for grain & straw.

On ~~a~~ the ~~Duing~~ the celebration of the Jubilee a meeting was held at Amalapuram, subscriptions were raised. the tasildar after spending some money misappropriated the ~~remain~~ balance. A sum of Rs. (70) one hundred and seventy was collected for that purpose from Nine villages. He also misappropriated the same.

The Tahsildar used to recommend those for remission for less persons who paid him half the sum recommended in advance. Those that did not pay, were not recommended & full cess was levied from them. The sums thus collected illegally as a bribe by the Tahr. amounted to Rs. (400) four hundred. Twenty-thousand rupees would have been collected as bribe by the Tahr. ever since he came to this taluk.

If proof is required as to the corruption of the Tahr. Govt. may call for sworn statements from any high Officer, or pleader or association, or any other resident at Amalapuram, as it may please Govt.

The petition in service of such a tahsildar is productive of many misfortunes & source of great oppression to the people of the taluk. Petrs. pray that this tahsildar be removed & another put in his place, otherwise a riot will break out. His notice was taken by the Lt Col. when petrs. represented these facts to him.
