For Order

This is Mr. Elwin's reply to the D. O. sent to him on the 6th instant enquiring what truth there is in the allegations made in the Andhnaparaskita of the 10th April regarding Belgaum charitable relief work.

2. As pointed out by Mr. Elwin the note in the Andhnaparaskita is based on a letter published in the Madras Mail of the 5th April, and the only allegation made has any truth in it is that Coolies were left without payment paid once in ten days. This irregularity was due to a want of proper forms & has since been rectified.

Mr. J. S. Stokes

Your letter of the 6th inst regarding the article in the Andraprakasika about the State of the relief work at Portmarchesla in this district

The article is evidently based on an account that appeared in the Madras Mail of the 5th April of the visit of one of its cor-respondents to the work on the 29th March.

I proceed to deal separately with the allegations made in the article:-

(a) That there were no sheds for the coolies to stay in
