PETITION

8937

REVENUE DEPT

TO

HIS EXCELLENCY

THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL

MADRAS

FORT SAINT GEORGE.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:—

The humble petition of the undersigned most respectfully sheweth that

1. With due deference and humble submission, the petitioners beg to represent the following few lines to Your Excellency's benign consideration and favourable orders.

2. The petitioners live within the fort of Srivaikuntham in Tinnevely District, being shut up within it by custom, and maintain themselves and their large families by cultivation and cultivation alone of their scanty landed property.

3. The petitioners are so unfortunate as to have neither any sort of employment under the most just and charitable Government of the Queen Empress of India, nor any kind of trade in the state.

4. The petitioners are unable to support themselves and their large families owing to the scantiness of their landed property.

5. The petitioners understand that there are certain Purambokoo lands (A letter Survey No. 300) to the extent of ten and odd acres at Srimoolakary village in the Taluk of Srivaikuntham in Tinnevely District, and to the extent of one hundred acres near the Periyathy in Madura District, and that the 1st mentioned lands are not used for Purambokoo purposes.

6. The petitioners are ready to cultivate the said lands and pay tax to the Government for same.

7. And the petitioners therefore pray that Your Excellency will be good enough to issue necessary orders to have the said lands registered in the names of the poor and humble petitioners and thus protect them.

For which act of charity and kindness the petitioners shall as in duty bound ever pray.

31st November 1897.

1. Chockalingam Pilly son of Subramania Pilly.
2. Kumaraswamiya Pilly son of Subramaniya Pilly.
3. Sivagooroonatha Pilly son of Alvar Pilly.
4. Umayarupaham Pilly son of Subramaniya Pilly.
