Resolution

Communicated to the Collector of Godavari

2. With reference to para 2 of the Govt order, the Board would respectfully submit that the Collector's action was not opposed to the Board's Standing order referred to. That order declares that "letters addressed to the Board should as a rule be complete in themselves and independent of enclosures". This does not prohibit the submission, under an endorsement, of a subordinate letter, in cases where this course appears to be desirable, and the Board begs leave to inform the Govt that an integral portion of the correspondence received from the Collectors' offices on routine subjects is submitted in this form. This course is convenient and it saves time in cases like the present. In the present case the

Sub-Collector

Sub-Collector's report related to a special establishment employed in ^{this} (the Sub-Collector's) office, and the Collector seems to have rightly submitted the report itself for the information of the Board and Government.
