PETITION

3038

Rec

To,

His Excellency the Governor in Council

Fort Saint George

Madras

CHIEF SECRETARY
8 DEC 1897
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

The petitioner Rudragoud of Chinna Hattoor, Aher Taluk, Bellary Dt. most humbly and respectfully sheweth

1 That he has been dismissed from his Reddiship for some trifling mistakes raked up against him by the then Acting Tahsildar of his Taluk, as detailed in the petition dated 1-2-97 submitted by him to the Hon: Board of Revenue.

2 That the petitioner appealed to the Collector, who, without sending for the records from the D.C. Officer and without hearing the petitioner's Vakil dismissed the appeal.

3. That the petitioner then presented an appeal against the Collector's order to the Hon: Board of Revenue who were not also pleased to find out the injustice complained of, but dismissed the appeal saying that it is presented long out of time, and on the merits also they said they have no reason to interfere.

4. The petitioner also submitted a Review petition explaining the cause of delay &c but even this was of no effect.

5 The petitioner therefore begs to submit herewith the marginally noted records with a sanguine hope of getting redress in the hands of Your Excellency. The injustice done to him is noticed neither by the Collr nor the Board. He is therefore obliged to suffer much in these hard days of famine.

1 Proceedings of the Hy Collr dismissing the petitioner
2. Proceedings of the Collr of Bellary 3/4-9-95 dismissing the appeal
3 Proc: of the Board of Rev: 3/19-11-96 dismissing the appeal
4. Proc: of the Board of Rev: 3/23-2-97 dismissing Review petition
5 Printed copy of the Review petition to the Board of Revenue

6/ In conclusion the petitioner begs to request that your Lordship may be graciously pleased to peruse the Review petition to the Hon: Board, send for the records, peruse them, and do justice & thus protect him in these hard days of famine - For this act of kindness the petitioner as in duty bound —

shall ever pray —
