2	Kandugula Sitabayamma.	61 1853	Granted by the Government of India.	Jagannadha Row, Gopal Row.	Widow	6,000 0 0	For life.—The estate of Dadi Peranna, the management of which devolved on the Court of Wards, when the last of the semindars, Gopal Row, died in 1836, was sold in satisfaction of the arrears of peshkash due to Government and was purchased on their behalf as it appeared to be extremely impossible that Government should have allowed a life pension of Rs. 300 together with 3 gardens. The pension was subsequently raised to Rs. 600—side Government Order, dated 12th July 1871, No. 1198. Jagannadha Row died on 24th January 1878, leaving a widow, to whom the allowance of Rs. 600 was continued in Government Order, No. 1011, of 7th May 1879, as a life grant to lapse to Government on her death.	Government Order, dated 7th May 1879, No. 1011.	Recd. at the Revenue Office, 24-11-1897.
3	Suraneni Venkata Narasimha Row.	33 1787	By Government.	S. Venkata Rama Row.	Great-grandson.	3,850 0 0	Hereditary.—The pension was originally granted in 1787 to the Suraneni family in lieu of rasmams and privileges in the Nizampet semindari resumed by Government in 1787. It is of a hereditary nature as regards land descendants and has been repeatedly recognised as such both by Local and Home Governments—side Government Order quoted in column 9. 3	Kamadana Venkata Narasimha Ramachandra Row.	1850	By Government.	Kamadana Papayya Row.	Second son of the original grantee.	Rs. A. P. 7,200 0 0	After the estates of Vinnakata and Gudivada were sold for arrears of peshkash in 1843, an allowance of Rs. 1,000 per annum was sanctioned in E.M.C., No. 214 of 28th February 1850, to the ex-Zemindar Papayya Row. The Government observed that the allowance was to cease on his death, but it was also stated that the possession and claims of his relations who might survive him would be a matter for consideration. Papayya Row died on 17th January 1876, leaving two sons behind him. The monthly allowance of Rs. 1,000 paid to him was split up and ordered to be distributed as follows— side Government Order, dated 28th August 1876, No. 1180. The Board, in its Proceedings, dated 6th August 1876, No. 1082, said that the allowance being in lieu of property given up to Government, should be treated as hereditary as in similar cases under Government Order, dated 6th December 1871, No. 2063. The Government Order is, however, silent on this point, but the recommendation of the Board for the continuance of the pension has been adopted:— Papayya Row's son Venkatrama Gopala Jagannatha Sobhanadri Row Rs. A. P. Padmanabha Venkata Narasimha Row, his nephew 600 0 0 Sobhanadri Row, son of Rayanna Row, brother of Papayya Row 100 0 0 Sobhanadri Row, son of Venkata Narasimha Jagannatha Row, nephew of Papayya Row 100 0 0 Venkata Krishna Row, nephew of Papayya Row 100 0 0 Total .. 1,000 0 0 Venkatrama Gopala Jagannatha Sobhanadri Row, eldest son of Papayya Row died on 16th March 1884, leaving no male issue. The allowance was therefore continued in the name of his undivided brother Venkata Narasimha Ramachandra Row, the present holder—side Government Order, dated 17th November 1884, No. 1253. 5	Kamadana Jagannatha Row.	1850	By Government.	Kamadana Papayya Row.	Nephew, that is son of Rayanna Row, step-brother of Papayya Row.	Rs. A. P. 1,200 0 0	This is also a portion of the main allowance granted to Papayya Row—see case No. 4 above. When the division of the whole allowance of Rs. 1,000 granted to Papayya Row was made in accordance with Government Order, dated 28th August 1876, No. 1180, this portion was sanctioned in the name of Sobhanadri Row, son of Rayanna Row, step-brother of Papayya Row. After the death of Sobhanadri Row in October 1883, the allowance was continued by the Board in the name of his undivided brother Jagannatha Row, the present holder, the former having left no issue to succeed him.	Board's Proceedings, dated 19th January 1884, No. 175.
6	Kamadana Venkata Krishna Row.	1860	Do.	Do.	Nephew, that is son of Buchi Papayya Row, step-brother of Papayya Row.	1,200 0 0	This is also a portion of the main allowance granted to Papayya Row. See case No. 4 above.	Government Order, dated 28th August 1876, No. 1180.

38	Manikya Row Tirumalamma Garu.	1845	By Government.	Manikya Row Zanganna Row.	Daughter-in-law, that is, widow of Gopal Row, son of Zanganna Row.	Rs. A. P. 3,600 0 0	Hereditary.—When the Répalle estate was sold for arrears of peishchush in 1844 and bought in along with certain other estates by Government, an allowance of Rs. 300 per mensem was sanctioned in the name of Zanganna Row, who enjoyed it until his death in 1870. The allowance was then renewed in the name of his son Venkata Gopala Row, subject to a deduction of Rs. 50 a month payable for life to his step-mother. By the terms of despatch No. 1 of 1849 of the late Court of Directors, the stipends of the five ex-Zemindars of the Guntūr district (of which this is one) were considered hereditary so long as the family was represented by lineal descendants in the male line including adoptions. The Government have since pronounced that the pensions are inheritable by heirs, either natural or adopted, without limitation in perpetuity— vide G.O., dated 2nd October 1871, No. 1720. Accordingly, on the death of Venkata Gopala Row on 22nd October 1883, and of his step-mother Lakshmayya on 16th December 1883, the Government, in their Order, No. 240, dated 19th February 1884 sanctioned the sum total of their allowances, viz., Rs. 300, in the name of Gopala Row's widow Tirumalamma Garu, the present holder, and to descend to any son she might adopt.	Government Order, dated 19th February 1884, No. 240.
39	Malrazu Venkata Narasimha Row.	1839	Do.	Malrazu Lakshmayya, widow of Venkata Gunda Row.	Grandson	9,600 0 0	Hereditary.—While the Malrazu estate of the late Guntūr district was under attachment for arrears of peishchush, an allowance of Rs. 1,000 per mensem was sanctioned in E. M. C. of 23rd May 1839, No. 654, in the name of Malrazu Lakshmayya, widow of late Venkata Gunda Row. The estate having then been sold with five others for arrears of revenue due to Government, and the widow having died, the Secretary of State, in his despatch No. 6 of 16th February 1864, embodied in Government Order, dated 2nd April 1864, No. 550, sanctioned the payment of an allowance of Rs. 800 per mensem to her adopted son Venkata Kondal Row and to his male descendants. Under the ruling of 1871 quoted in the case of Manikya Row Tirumalamma Garu, No. 9 above, the stipend was continued to Kondal Row's adopted son, the present incumbent— vide order quoted in column 9, but on the complaint of his adoptive mother Lakshmi Venkayamma Row of ill-treatment from her adopted son Venkata Narasimha Row, a sum of Rs. 240 out of the main allowance of Rs. 800 was ordered to be separately paid for her life or until further orders— vide Government Order, dated 3rd February 1888, No. 166, Revenue. 41	Manuri Venkata Ramamayya Row.	1842	By Government.	Manuri Venkata Hanumayamma.	Adopted son ..	Rs. A. P. 1,800 0 0	Hereditary.—The Chilakalurpad estate of the late Guntūr district was another of the five zamindaries attached and sold for arrears of peishchush, an allowance of Rs. 300 per mensem (Rs. 150 to Venkata Hanumayamma and Rs. 150 to Venkanna Row) being sanctioned to the then possessors of the estate— vide E. M. C. No. 1645, of 1st August 1842. The grant was confirmed in the home despatch No. 1 of 1849 and was restricted like the others to the lineal male descendants in the family. When Venkata Hanumayamma died in 1869, her share of the allowance, Rs. 150 per mensem, was renewed in the name of present holder, her adopted son— vide Government Order, No. 2063, of 6th December 1871. The Government having since (Government Order, dated 2nd October 1871, No. 1720), recognised that an allowance granted in lieu of property given up to Government was inheritable by heirs, natural or adopted, without limitation in perpetuity, the grant is considered hereditary.	Government Order, dated 6th December 1871, No. 2063.
42	Manuri Venkanna Row.	1842	Do.	Manuri Venkanna Row.	Grandson, that is adopted son of Venkata Krishna Narasimha Row.	1,800 0 0	Hereditary.—Venkanna Row, grandfather of the present holder, was the ex-proprietor of the Talūr Sub-division of the late Chilakalurpad estate referred to in the preceding case. On the resumption of the estate by Government in 1846, Bharatamma, Venkanna Row's son, was granted an allowance of Rs. 150 per mensem, and the same was after her death renewed in the name of her adopted son Venkata Krishna Narasimha Row in 1848. Upon his death in 1872, the allowance was continued to his widow Seethamma— vide Government Order, No. 237, of 28th February 1873. In the year 1873, she adopted a boy of 11 years old, named Venkanna Row, the present holder. The fact of the adoption was reported in Mr. Leman's letter, No. 320, of 6th March 1873, to the Board whose orders in the matter (No. 495 of 1st April 1873) were recorded in Government Order, No. 469, of 12th May 1873. On the recommendation of the Collector for the continuance of the allowance in the name of the adopted son Venkanna Row, on his attaining majority, the Board in their Proceedings, No. 1188, dated 16th April 1886, sanctioned the registry of the allowance accordingly. The allowance is said to be hereditary as long as the family continues to be represented by heirs, natural or adopted— vide Government Order, No. 1720, of 2nd October 1871. 12	Manuri Bharatamma.	17	1845	..	By Government.	Manuri Gopalarayanam Garu.	Grandson's (that is eldest son's son) widow.	Rs. 3,600 0 0	Hereditary.—The claims of the Sattenapalle ex-zemindars are parallel to those of Vasireddi and the other three estates of the late Guntur district. On the death of the original grantee, the allowance was continued to his eldest son Venkata Seshachalapati Row, who used to give half of it to his divided brother Venkata Bhujanga Ramanayya Row according to a private agreement. On the death of Venkata Seshachalapati Row on 15th November 1884, the whole allowance was renewed in the name of his son Venkata Krishna Row on the condition of his paying the sub-pensioners as usual, but Venkata Krishna Row also having died on 20th December 1886, leaving a will authorizing his minor widow to adopt a son, the allowance was continued in the widow's name—vide Board's Proceedings, No. 414, dated 5th August 1887.	E. M. C., dated 8th November 1845, and Board's Proceedings, No. 414, dated 5th August 1887.
14	Vasireddi Venkata Lakshmi Narasimha Naidu.	28	1847	..	Do.	Vasireddi Jagannadha Baboo.	Grandson	12,000 0 0	This is the great-grandson of late Vasireddi Venkatadri Naidu whose estate was subjected to so much litigation. The adoption of this son was recognised and the pension of Rs. 750 which used to be paid to his adoptive mother Venkata Lakshammamma Garu was transferred to him with an increase of Rs. 250. Venkata Lakshmi Narasimha Naidu thus drew the full amount of pension enjoyed by his father Lakshminipati Naidu. This is the amount of pension originally granted to the zemindar of Vasireddi estate and continued, as a special case, to the adopted son of the late zemindar and his heirs. The allowance is inheritable by heirs, natural or adopted, without limitation in perpetuity—vide Government Order, No. 1720, dated 2nd October 1871. 15	Vasireddi Dasaradhi Naidu.	32	1847	..	By Government.	Parvatamma, 2nd wife of Vasireddi Jagannadha Baboo.	Grandson	Rs. 1,800 0 0	Ramanadha Baboo, the 2nd of the two sons adopted by Venkatadri Naidu, was in Government Order, No. 796 of 1850, granted a subsistence allowance of Rs. 300, on the score of his being deprived of his monthly allowance of Rs. 1,000 which was transferred by a decree of the Privy Council to Jagannadha Baboo, 1st adopted son of Venkatadri Naidu.	(1) Government Order, No. 403, dated 11th March 1875. (2) Government Order, No. 748, dated 17th May 1875. (3) Government Order, No. 2256, dated 11th December 1879. (4) Government Order, No. 1292, dated 15th October 1883.
15	Vasireddi Gnanaprakasamba.	36	1847	..	Do.	Do.	Grandson's widow.	1,800 0 0	On the death of Ramanadha Baboo, an allowance of Rs. 150 only was sanctioned in the name of his widow Parvatamma for life—vide Government Order, No. 237 of 29th January 1861. On the death of Parvatamma, adoptive mother, and Papamma, widow of Ramanadha Baboo, Rs. 300 (Rs. 150 out of Parvatamma's allowance of Rs. 202-8-0 and full allowance of Rs. 150 of Papamma) were sanctioned to be paid to Ramanadha Baboo's sons Dasaradhi Naidu and Sivaprasada Naidu—vide Government Order, No. 403, of 11th March 1875; Government Order, No. 748, of 17th May 1875, and Government Order, No. 2256, of 11th December 1879. Dasaradhi Naidu and Sivaprasada Naidu for some time drew their pension on a single P.P. order enjoying it in equal shares according to a private agreement. On the death of Sivaprasada Naidu, his allowance of Rs. 150 was sanctioned in the name of his widow Gnanaprakasamba and a separate P.P. order was issued—vide Government Order, No. 1292, of 15th October 1883. As this pension is connected with the Vasireddi estate, one of the five estates of Guntur district, mentioned in E.M.C., dated 6th December 1847, No. 1322, it is treated as hereditary under Government Order, No. 1720, of 2nd October 1871.

16	Vasireddi Padmanabharannah.	28-35	By Government.	Chendramowli Naidu.	Great-grandson.	Rs. 4,020 0 0	The original grantee Chendramowli Naidu was the cousin of Venkatadri Naidu who kept him in confinement and subjected him to much severity. The Government therefore took him under their protection and directed that a sufficient allowance for his maintenance be made by Venkatadri Naidu; accordingly a pension of Rs. 385 per mensem was bestowed upon Chendramowli Naidu in 1794. When the Vasireddi estate was taken over by Government, this pension was reduced to Rs. 385 was restored to his son Padmanabharannah who had attained his majority. He being one of the members of the family of Vasireddi Venkatadri Naidu whose estate was taken by Government, this allowance is also hereditary as stated in Board's letter in Government Order, No. 1471, dated 2nd July 1867, and also under Government Order, No. 1720, of 2nd October 1871.	Government Order, No. 1471, dated 2nd July 1867.
17	Manuri Janaki Row.	24-25	By Government.	Manuri Venkata Kondal Row.	Son.	1,920 0 0	Manuri Venkatesam Garu held the office of Mazundar and Sheristadar of Murtizanagar Circle during the Muhammadan rule. When the taluka of Murtizanagar were divided among the zamindars of Vasireddi, Malraza and Manuri families, Sattenapalle fell to the share of Venkatesam Garu. After the management of the Gunter Circle was assumed by the British Government in 1788, permanent settlement was made in 1802 with Venkatesam's third son Venkataramanayya Row Garu, granting to his 4th son Janakirayanam Garu, grandfather of the present holder, a monthly allowance of Rs. 333 per mensem to be paid through the Collector of the Gunter district and charged to the estate. On the death of Janakirayanam Garu, his allowance of Rs. 333 was continued in the name of his second son Venkata Kondal Row (the first son having died issueless) who used to pay Rs. 72 to Lakshmidayamma, his brother's widow, under a private agreement. Subsequently the estate was brought under Government management and Venkata Kondal Row's allowance was reduced from Rs. 333 to Rs. 160, Lakshmidayamma's allowance being at the same time proportionately reduced to Rs. 36. On the death of Venkata Kondal Row his allowance was in Government Order, No. 310, of 14th March 1873, continued to his widow Annakamma subject of course, to a deduction of Rs. 36 payable to Lakshmidayamma on a separate P. P. order for life. When Annakamma died, her allowance was renewed in the name of her adopted son Janaki Row, the present holder—vide Government Order, No. 379, of 14th April 1882, on the same conditions. Lakshmidayamma also having subsequently died, her share of allowance, viz., Rs. 36 per mensem, reverted to Janaki Row, the head of the family—vide Government Order, No. 27, dated 11th January 1884. The present allowance of Janaki Row, the present holder, is thus Rs. 160 per mensem. This allowance also is hereditary, as it belongs to the Manuri estate, which is one of the five estates referred to in E.M.C., dated 6th December 1847, No. 1322.
