Most Honoured Sir

With due deference and profound submission I beg to state that application has been made to the Collector of Madras to furnish me with a copy of the order made by him on my petition concerning the tomb of Hutchinson Samuel Newlin the in Conjeeveram and as soon as the certified copy is sent into my hands I shall duly dispatch the same for the orders of Government.

I request that until the transmission of that record my petition be not disposed of.

I beg to remain
Most Honoured Sir
Your most obedient servant
