SUBJECT.

The Pet^r, the trustee of a temple, in Tinnivelly complains that an income tax was unjustly levied on certain temple receipts in 1893. The Board has declined to reopen a case disposed of so early and it is presumed that the Govt will not interfere now

District and the Board of Revenue for the refund of the said tax by petitioners dated respectively 15th January and 12th August 1896. That both the collector and the Board have declined to grant petitioner's prayer, the collector holding that he has no power, and the Board, that they are not prepared to reopen a question of income tax disposed of in 1893.

3. That Copies of orders of the collector and the Board of Revenue are herewith Submitted.

4. That petitioner begs to submit that the said orders are illegal and unjust.
