The following letter from the Collector of Bellary, dated 19th April 1897 No 2232:-

With reference to para 2 of Board's Proceedings No 1694 dated 6th March 1897, I have the honor to report that the number of loan applications pending in the Bellary at the end of March 1897 was 1544 under the ordinary rules and 70 under the special well rules of the Land Improvements Loans Act and 231 under the Agriculturists Loans Act. The number of Applications received per week under both the Loans Acts is about 138 on an average while the number disposed of of during the same length of period is about 171. In these circumstances I do not think that the number of Special Revenue Inspectors sanctioned for Alur Taluk should be further reduced, though the fourth Revenue Inspector sanctioned in Board's Proceedings No 1699 his dated 6th March 1897 is not necessary And has not been entertained as reported in my letter Reference on C. No 1301 of 97 dated 6th April 1897
