The petrs. state as follows:-

In consequence of famine and scarcity of rain the petrs' lands failed ^{last year} and Govt. was pleased to help them with money to purchase seed and cattle. This year rain was scanty and while some of the petrs' lands have yielded half the usual crop, the others have completely failed. As a result of this prices have risen and the petrs. find it difficult to earn their livelihoods. Under the circumstances the petrs. pray that orders may issue to the Collector to have the collection of assessments on lands that have failed, suspended. The Collector has issued orders for the collection of assessments on all lands irrespective of their yield. The petrs. therefore pray that a list of fields which have failed may be prepared and that the assessments thereon may be remitted.
