The peti. is a pattiadar of Malavanur village in West M. This village was long a jagir and as soon as it ceases to be so the peti in 1875 applies to the Sub Col. to assign to him certain lands in the above village which were not included in any ryoti pattiadar and which could fetch an assessment to Govt. of Rs 1000 per annum. But as the Sub Col. took no notice of the peti's application the peti applied to the Com. who ^{in 1882} ordered the assignment to the peti of the lands in question. But the Sub Col. without giving effect to the Col.'s order has the lands assigned to certain ryots who never put in any application for the same. Between the years 1875 - '82 the ryots did not pay any assessment on the lands thus subjecting Govt. to a loss of Rs 7000. The peti thereupon appeals to the Board which in its Proceedings No 7523 of 91 declines to interfere in the matter. The peti again ~~for~~ presents a petition to the Col. who asks him to appeal to Govt. The peti therefore prays that ~~the Board~~ ~~be put in possession of the lands~~ ~~in question~~ either the Col. or the Board may be directed to put the peti in possession of the lands in question & that the Col. collect from the ryots the unpaid assessment of Rs 7000 re.ferred to above.
