REVENUE BOARD OFFICE. MADRAS.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture.)

Dated 6th May 1897.

No. 3190 Miscellaneous

READ ..... the following letter from the Special Deputy Collector Jammalamadugu Division; Ref $\frac{308}{7}$ dated 11th April 1897 to the Collector of Cuddapah:—

In Board's Proceedings No $\frac{12}{7\text{-}1\text{-}97}$, communicated with your Ref on e No. $\frac{253}{17\text{-}1\text{-}97}$, Rs 2000 were sanctioned for expenditure on gratuitous relief for the official year ending March 1897, but no allotment has been made for the current official year. The Tahsildars have been asked to report what amount was spent on account of gratuitous relief till the end of March and the amount required for the current year, but their replies are not yet received. But as the

the expenditure is of an urgent nature
it is being incurred in anticipation of your sanction

1. The probable amount that will be required for the current year is Rs 5,000. There are at present 10 relief works and 5 more works will have to be opened soon. Besides, kitchens in villages have also to be opened. At the rate of Rs 50 for each work per mensem, for 6 months the total amount required is Rs 4,500. To cover unforseen contingencies, I ask for Rs 5,000.

Read also the following endorsement thereon, Reference on Current No. 141/7 of 97, dated 24 st April 1897:-

Communicated to Famine Secretary, ~~to~~ Board of Revenue, with a request that an allotment of Rs 5,000 may be sanctioned for expenditure on gratuitous relief for 1897-98.

Resolution.

Submitted to Government

2. The expenditure on gratuitous relief in the district reported up to the end of March last was Rs 950, and the average monthly expenditure has of late been about Rs 300. But gratuitous relief has, until now, been confined to the grant of cooked food in kitchens attached to relief works. The Government has recently sanctioned the grant of money doles to the children and infirm descendants of relief workers, who would not accept food in kitchens, as also the establishment of central kitchens and distribution of gracis doles in villages. This extension of the scope of gratuitous relief operations will greatly enhance the rate of expenditure under this head, and the Board considers that the amount that will be required for the current year is likely to be nearer Rs 10,000 than the Collector's estimate of Rs 5,000 and would ask for the allotment
