FOR ORDERS.

The Provincial Civil Service Examination Board suggested in 1893 that the month in which the competitive examination was to be held should be fixed & that the month of August would be most suitable for this purpose. The Govt accepted this suggestion & embodied the same in the rules for admission to the Provincial Service. The examinations of 1894 & 1895 were held in the month of August. About the beginning of 1896 it was represented to the Government of India that the list of Dy Collectors was being enlarged too rapidly, that the proportion of vacancies in the enlarged list to be thrown open to competition which was fixed in 1890 at two-thirds was too high, that the nine posts already added to the Dy Collectors' list

FOR ORDERS.

would provide for several years staff sufficient for all requirements and that the no. of appointments to be thrown open to competition should for the present be reduced to one per annum. Pending the reply of the Government of India action as regards the competitive examination which should have been held in August 1896 was deferred & on receipt of the orders of the Govt of India the examination was held in December 1896 —

Orders are solicited as to whether the examination for the ~~current~~ year 1897-98 should be held in August or in December. — No reason has been assigned by the P.C.S.
Exam. Board for considering that August is the most suitable month for holding the competitive examination. In the absence of any special reasons it will be convenient to hold the examination in the month of January, for, the results will be known by March & the successful candidate can be appointed as Dy Collector with effect from 1 April when vacancies are due to occur in consequence of May 6.

January would be a convenient month as regards the time for publication of results, but it is not so convenient as regards examinations & examiners. The H.E. & M.E., H.A. & M.A., & Engineering exams all take place in Jan.
The Administration & F.A. exams take place in Dec. but they work well from into this examination. I think December should be chosen.
