The petition states as follows:-

The petitioner enjoys wages of 76 cents of barber inam in his village. Some of his enemies in the village presented a complaint ~~again~~ against him to the Colly who without enquiring into the matter suspended him. The petitioner thereupon in vain represented to his officers that he was doing duty as barber & prayed that an enquiry may be held. The petitioner appealed to the Board which declines to interfere. He therefore prays that the enclosed orders of the Colly & the Board may be perused, that the matter may be enquired into and that the order of suspension may be cancelled.
