C/. No. 3540 of 1897

From the President, Board of Examiners

To The Hon'ble Mr. Grose C.I.E. H.E. the Governor.

Dated 26. 4. 1897.

FOR ORDERS.

In his letter to the Chief Secretary dated the 5th February 1897, the President, Board of Examiners recommended that European and Eurasian Deputy Collectors might in future be required to pass the same vernacular examinations as Covenanted assistants. The Public Deptt referred the President's letter to this Department for favour of remarks. It was then observed that 'it will be sufficient if the European and Eurasian 'Deputy Collectors are required 'to pass the same vernacular 'examinations as assistants 'in the Indian Civil Service'. The Public Deptt thereupon asked whether by the words 'the same vernacular examinations' as as Covenanted assistants, it was intended that the Dy. Collectors should pass both the Lower and Higher Standard Examinations.

The President, Board of Examiners who was addressed on the subject (G.O. No 763 dy 10.4.97) now says that it was his original intention that European and Eurasian Deputy Collectors should be placed on exactly the same footing as the Covenanted Civil Servants as regards examinations in vernacular languages, the Standard prescribed for the second language being lower than that prescribed for the first, and that after the receipt of the however G.O. above quoted, it has occurred to him that it is unnecessary that European and Eurasian Dy. Collectors should pass the lower Standard before they present themselves for examination by the Higher Standard.

Orders are requested as to whether as now stated when I think she will be enough examined the Higher Standard.
