DESPATCH
31 DEC. 96

Sir

I have the honor to remark with reference to Mr Hadfields application for 2 years furlough in commutation of the one months privilege leave granted that though it apparently is received at an awkward season it should undoubtedly be granted as Mr. Hadfield is known much crippled by rheumatism from malarial fever and it must also be remembered that he has served 13 years continuously in the South Malabar

As regards the posting of an officer than separately addressed the Forest Member but I would urge the appointment of an officer at once as I am not willing acting in the work after the conclusion of the Pumbay base on or about the 31st January for I shall be going to South Canara.

I have the honour to be
