Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Separate Revenue.)

Dated 18th March, 1897.

His No. 1081

Read the following letter from the Deputy Commissioner, Central Division, No 6117 dated 30th December, 1896:-

"The Inspector, Madras Town Circle, calls my attention to the fact that, where as it is very necessary to have complete control over opium vendors in the Madras Town as well as over the farmers, the only means of punishing them for petty offences reserved by the Department under existing conditions of their license are forfeiture of the license (Conditions XI and XII) which is too severe, and fining the farmer (Condition 32 of the farmer's license) in which case connivance or privacy has to be proved, which is generally impossible. He therefore suggests that a fresh condition be added to the vendors' license making him liable to to fine not exceeding Rs 10 for petty offences. I think the Suggestion is a good one, and if it is approved by the Board, would suggest that a Condition to this effect be added in the form of license embodied in the notification for the next lease."

Resolution

The Board begs to bring to the notice of Government that it is impossible to control opium vendors effectually, in the absence of a provision in their licenses providing for the imposition of fines for petty offences committed by them. The present rules permit only the Cancellation of the license, which, in many cases, is too severe a punishment. It therefore suggests that a fresh Condition be added to the vendor's license making him liable to a fine not exceeding Rs 10, for petty offences.

2. Under Condition 3.2 of the opium Vendor's license petty offences can be punished by fine, provided they are committed either by the licensee or by any person in his employment but there is no means of exercising control over shopkeepers except except by the Cancellation of their licenses. The Board therefore requests that Government will be pleased to sanction under Rules XXXI and XXXVI the substitution of the following for Condition XV of forms III and V and Condition XIV of forms IV and VI appended to the opium rules:-

"That in case of any infringement by the holders of this license of any of the above articles or of any of the Conditions imposed by the opium Act, 1878, or by the rules made thereunder, it shall be competent to the Collector to cancel this license and any other license or licenses that the holder may have taken out for the sale of opium, or poppy heads, or for the manufacture or sale of any intoxicating drug prepared from the poppy. Provided that the Collector may instead of cancelling the licenses give the licensee the option of paying such fine not exceeding Rs 10 as he may see fit to impose.
