(Land Revenue)

Forest NO 418 Misc, dated 10th May 1897

Read Endorsement of the Conservator of Forests Central Circle, dated 26th April 1897, NO.1576 forwarding for sanction letter from the Collector of Salem, dated 23rd April 1897, R.NO 131/B & G, stating that the District Forest Officer found it necessary to take a clerk and 2 peons with him to Bangalore as he continued to do office work relating to the District Forest Office and requesting the Board to accord sanction for their journies.

2 Read Endorsement of the Conservator of Forests, C.C. dated 30th April 1897, NO.1603 forwarding for sanction letter from the Collector of Salem dated 27th April 1897, R.C.NO 889, requesting the Board to obtain the sanction of Government for permitting the District Forest Officer to be absent from the District for 8 days for verifying the field seasons survey work of the forestst of this District.

Resolution.

In G.O.Mis.NO.1090/Revenue, dated 23rd February 1897 sanction was accorded to the District Forest Officer Salem, to proceed to Bangalore on duty for the purpose of verifying the survey of India field sheets. A similar sanction, was applied for in the case of the District Forest Officer, Kurnool, in B.P.F.NO 525 Routine, dated 23rd April 1897. The Collector of North Arcot now requests that his District Forest Officer may be permitted to leave the District for 8 days to proceed to Bangalore on the same duty, while the Collector of Salem requests sanction for his Dt. Forest Officer having taken a clerk and 2 peons with him to Bangalore.

2 The Board accordingly requests the sanction of Government for the journey of the District Forest Officer, N.Arcot, and of the clerk and two peons of the District Forest Officer, Salem, to Bangalore

Bangalore and back, under article 1137 of the Civil Service Regulations.

3 The Collector of North Arcot will be authorised to permit his District Forest Officer to proceed to Bangalore at once in anticipation of the sanction of Government.
