SUBJECT.

Praying for reduction of assessment.

The papers will be referred to the Collector of Coimbatore with the request that a clear and concise statement of the grounds on which the Petitioner was assessed to income tax for (as he says) the year ending 31st March 1896 the first declines to interfere

Ulle 22/5/97 — 29/5/97

The petitioner was assessed & taxed Rs. 10 under the Income tax Act. His objection petition was dismissed by the taluq & the revision petition by the D.C. The Collector also when petitioner declines to forward the petition to Govt. as the Collector has previously submitted himself as to the correctness of the assessment & if so, submit there is no good calling for a report.

226
REVENUE DEPT

To

His Excellency
The Right Honorable
The Governor in Council
Fort St. George
Madras.

The humble Revision Petition of Ramanarasier son of Krishnien of Samakolam Coimbatore Taluq Coimbatore District now residing in Cuchah Coimbatore, against the decision of the Assistant Collector in Income Tax Register No 5/1897 most respectfully Showeth:—

1. That your Excellency's Petitioner has been accessed to a tax of Rs 10 by the Tasildar of Coimbatore for the year ending the 31st day of March 1896.

2. That your Excellency's Petitioner appealed against this decision to the Assistant Collector of Coimbatore in Register No 5/1897 who confirmed the tax on the ground that your Excellency's Petitioner had not adduced any fresh evidence.

3. Now your Excellency's Petitioner most respectfully begs to submit that he had no other income income but from money lending and produced all his documents and a list of the same to show that he had, up to march 31 of 1896 lent out only Rs 2780-14-0 and that he had actually received only Rs 179-15-0 for interest and that he had no other source of income but the Shasildar says "that your Excellency's Petitioner is reported to have lent out more and that he sees no reason to believe him".

4. Your Excellency's Petitioner most respectfully submits that the Shasildar is wrong in having given no credit to the statement on oath of your Excellency's Petitioner but he has given more credit to the report of a stranger who was not examined as a witness by him. The Shasildar ought to have based his decision on the evidence on record and not on report of a stranger. The Shasildar is wrong in saying in his order that your Excellency's Petitioner has dealings to the extent of Rs 3602. This is after 31st March 1896.

5. That your Excellency's Petitioner had for the year 1895-1896 lent out only Rs 2780-14-0 and received only Rs 179-15-0 which is not which is not liable to taxation under clause (f) para (b) of section 5 of the Income tax act; This, your Excellency's Petitioner has fully proved both by oral and documentary evidence. 2 orders are herewith produced, for your Excellency's kind perusal.

Under these circumstances your Excellency's Petitioner most respectfully prays that your Excellency will graciously be pleased to remit the tax & render Justice.
