(LAND REVENUE).

RESOLUTION—Forest No. 183, dated 5th May 1897.

The Board observes that the Forest annual administration reports received from Collectors do not as a rule contain any information regarding the amount of rewards granted to informers under the marginally-noted Proceedings. Collectors are requested to devote a special paragraph to the subject in their future reports. The number of cases and the amount of rewards granted should invariably be specified.

Board's Proceedings, Forest No. 104, dated 20th February 1889.
Board's Proceedings, Forest No. 74, dated 2nd February 1894.

2. The rewards to Abkári officers, disbursed out of fines inflicted for breach of the conditions of the lease of toddy-yielding Government trees, should also be shown separately.
