ENCLOSURE.

From the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, to the Accountant-General, Public Works Department, dated Calcutta, 24th March 1897, No. 81 A.G.

In reply to your endorsement, No. 133 G. of the 12th February 1897, relative to the incidence of cost of certain classes of establishment employed in connection with famine relief works, I am directed to communicate the following orders :—

(i) In the case of an officer already in the service of Government, the principle to be followed is to charge pay and travelling allowance to the ordinary head when he is merely an addition to an existing establishment which requires strengthening owing to famine work; but when he is detached altogether from his own regular duties and is employed exclusively on famine relief work, his pay and travelling allowance are chargeable to 33. Famine Relief.

(ii) Extra establishment specially entertained for and wholly employed on famine relief work should be charged to 33. Famine Relief.

(iii) Temporary establishment entertained to replace the regular establishment, employed partly or wholly on famine relief work, should be regarded merely as an addition to the regular establishment and should be charged to the ordinary head.

(iv) In all cases travelling allowance to and from the work, and also while engaged on the work, is debitable to the same head as that to which the salary of the official is charged.

(v) In the case of famine relief works carried out by officers of the Public Works Department and chargeable to Incorporated Local Funds, percentage charges for establishment and tools and plant need not be made.
