READ The following letter from the Collector of Coosabak dated

I have the honor to state that the tractwar sketches etc called for by the Board, in its Proceedings no 330 dated 1st May 1897, regarding dry remissions, have not yet been received from Tahsildars and Divisional officers, though two urgent reminders were sent to them. The see enclosed

The Tahsildar has ^{tabular} sent villagewar ~~tabular~~ state -ments showing the ~~return~~ of of crops for each village: but even he has not forwarded the tractwar sketches required by the Board and requires a week's time to send them.
The Tahsildar of Jammalamadugu wires to say that he will send his statement & tomorrow Mr. R.
Rangarao telegraphs that he is engaged in making enquiries about the suitability of the Railway project between Geroapamla and Nanoyal and that he has asked the Tahsildars to send the required information direct to me. I have wired urgent to all officers again to submit full and complete information without any any delay whatever I shall forward them all as soon as I am in possession of complete information

Resolution

Recorded

2 Considering that the information, not available by the middle of May, was due in January and that the Collector promised in January to submit it by the 20th of February, Mr. Tate appears to be trifling with the Board.
