BOARD OF REVENUE,

REV. SETT., L. RECORDS & CULTURE,
Madras, 27.5.1897

My dear Sir,
I will see about Tals
when I get to Cuddalore.
I have been there long but for James, who has changed his date twice.
I can't wait for him for ever & am sending a my Camp to Cuddalore.

I will go with Thomas or next day. He can tell him all about the fund here & he can meet me in camp.

I mentioned the fund-making boxes in a former letter. It is very difficult to get a reply for reference from Tate.

On the 14th Dr. Chetoff warring operations seem to be very active. (His first move was to come up to head & ask Buckley for 20 days prior leave, which he did not get). I wish to say that the Gulf of Mexico coast reported by Tate in which warrens, by long & continuous working, for the A page, it in all cases there was a considerable margin of profit for profit. I have been in contact with Binney & Co about the copyright etc, & am looking as official with subject.

Yours sincerely
 J. H. M. M.
