READ The following letter from the Collector of Bellary, dated 22nd May 1897, Ref on C.No 2358 of 1897.

The 21st and 22nd June are to be observed as public holidays in honor of the 60th year of the reign of Her Majesty the Queen Empress of India, and I beg to suggest that relief workers also may be granted a holiday on those days, and that having regard to the very special nature of the occasion, they may be granted the wage of their class, instead of the ordinary rest day wage.

Resolution

Submitted to Government for favourable consideration. It was stated in—the Madras Mail that this concession was under the consideration of Government. It would perhaps be well to issue orders confidentially to prevent a run on the works on the days preceding the anniversary

Orders.

No.

The Govt. of India agrees to the proposal to grant a holiday to relief workers on the 21st and 22nd June with the usual wage. In C. No. 4612 the Board suggests that the decision to grant the holiday might be kept confidential in order to prevent a run on the works on the days preceding the anniversary. It will be very difficult to keep orders secret which have to be communicated to all the officers in charge of relief works.
