Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Separate Revenue.)

Dated 19th May 1897.

Mis No. 2084.

Read the following letter from the Collector of Nilgiris Re No $\frac{242}{96}$ dated 24th April, 1897.

"In my letter No Refar Cum 242/96 of 9th March 1897, I recommended for the sanction of the Board rewards of Rs 10 and 5 to two persons in the North Arcot District as suggested by the Collector, for their being the means of arresting a large Abkani defaulter who had long escaped arrest, and in its Proceedings 1275 Mis 31.3.97, the Board held that the rewards could not be sanctioned under Rule 121 (3) of Circular Order No 1 of 1891.

2. I now have the honour to enquire whether the Board will not see fit to recommend Government to grant a special reward under the circumstances set out in the enclosed copies of the North Arcot Collector's letter and the Vallor Tahildar's report.

The Collector of Nilgiris has been asked to submit a report on the progress of the work in the district for the year 1896-97 and to submit a report on the progress of the work in the district for the year 1897-98.

3. I suggest it is very advisable to encourage persons to give information or assistance to Revenue officials who seek to arrest defaulting Adami Contractors who are in hiding and in the present case the defaulters could not have been arrested without such information and assistance."

Enclosed No. 1.

Copy of letter from the Tahsildar of Vellore Taluk to the Collector of North Arcot dated 30th January 1897.

With reference to your honours Confidential Nos 2 dated 16th January 1897 and 3 dated 23rd January 1897, I respectfully beg to state that I arrested P. Narasimha Chari of Pallikonda referred to therein this evening at Vellore at 7 P.M. in obedience to the warrant of the Collector of Nilgiris received therewith. I shall deliver him to the Jailor of the Central Jail at Vellore the day after tomorrow morning (1st February 1897) as the Jail authorities would, I learn, receive him tomorrow being Sunday.

2. This day (30th January 1897) after breakfast

I went to Tirumani the village mentioned in the orders under reply with two confidential men Rajjopab Pillai manager of Pallikonda and Srinivasaboo head of my Taluk. The former knew the defaulters very well. In Tirumani there are four Vaishnava Brahman houses. We did not find the man there though we searched for him in each and every one of these houses. Our endeavours were thus in vain. However I sent for the manager of Tirumani village and asked him confidentially about the man. He told me that the defaulters neither had relatives nor house and land in that village; that he never used to come there and that he hears that the defaulters now and then comes to Katpadi and stays there. Thence we returned to Katpadi and searched for him in vain. We then returned quite disappointed to Vellore at 6.30 P.M. At Vellore the aforesaid man found out the defaulters and pointed him out to me at 7 P.M. I immediately arrested him. Had it not been for their pains and interest of the said Rajagopal Pekkai and Prinecasubas Re I would have been unable to arrest him. fa I therefore request that your honour will be pleased to address the Collector of Nilgiris to grant a reward of Rs 10 to the first man and Rs 5 to the second man to set an example to other village officers and others to follow their example in the event of such necessities

3. The defaulter has in his possession a currency note of Rs 10 and cash Rs 2 and wears a pair of pearl earrings in his ears, besides some cloths and dress.
I took possession of the money Rs 12 in view that it may be credited towards the arrears and I request your honour's instructions on it, as also if I can remove the earrings and extra cloths and dress he has and keep them in the office so that they may be sold in auction and the sale proceeds credited towards the arrears due"

Enclosure No 2

Enclosure No 2

copy of letter from the Collector of North Arcot to the Collector of Nilgiris Ref: in bus: No ²⁹⁹/_{Per} of 97 dated 4th February 1897

"With reference to your letter No 242 RCO dated 7th ultimo enclosed herewith I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of the Arzi from the Tahsildar of Vellore respecting the arrest of the Abkari defaulter P. Narasimmachari of Pallikonda and to state that I understand that the full amount of the arrears was tendered at the jail after the defaulter was imprisoned there and that it was refused as there was no provision in your warrant for accepting payment

2. In para 2 of the Arzi the Tahsildar of Vellore states that he would not have been able to arrest the defaulter had it not been for the pains and interest taken by the two individuals referred to therein and request that these individuals may be paid a reward of Rs 10 and Rs 5 respectively respectively and I recommend for your favourable consideration The Tabasco request. I know that the Tabasco himself had a very hard day's work over this search and the result is satisfactory."

Resolution

Submitted to Government

2. As the full amount of arrears has been collected the Board supports the collector's recommendation
