Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. If any inspection is considered necessary next year the Board recommends that arrangements may be made for deputing Mr.
Couchman. It has not however in practice been found found feasible to have an inspection every second year, ^{*1865-66} and no inconvenience has ¹⁸⁶⁸⁻⁹ resulted from the omission. The ¹⁸⁷²⁻³ years in which inspections ¹⁸⁷⁹⁻⁸⁰ have been made are noted ¹⁸⁸⁵⁻⁸⁶

The Hon: Mr T. J. P. C. J. B.

FOR ORDERS.

Re: inspection of the Amindini group of the Laccadives.

In para 10 of G.O. 2045 D 2. 9.67 the Govt trusted that it might be found feasible to depute a European officer to visit the Amindini Islands at least once in every two years. The last inspection having been made in February and March 1895, the Collector reports that the next visit is due in the early part of the present year, but he thinks that there is no special necessity for the visit at present. The Board agrees with the Collector in this opinion alone expressed.

2 The list of dates given on the margin of para 2 of the Board's Resolution shows that after the issue of the G.O. above quoted only seven visits ^{have been} made (in the course of the last 30 years).

Submitted for orders as to whether the Govt may agree with the Collr and the Board in their opinion that the visit to the

Amindini

Amindiri Islands may be deferred until next year.

FOR ORDERS.

I have learned from I recalled in the papers that there has been some trouble islands lately owing to the rice boats not reaching back in time and also that the islands had suffered much in the cyclone a month or two ago. I visited the islands in 1872. and though I can not say that any very definite good has directly from these visits still I think a certain amount has indirectly followed. especially if our command has made to fresh schools. It is now three years since they were visited and in view of this & the other circumstances I think the visit should not be deferred beyond next year at latest if owing to the pressure on the strength of the service it can not be arranged this year.
