(B)

With reference to Board's Proceedings No. 94 dated 3rd February 1897 and No. 172 dated 27th February 1897, I have the honor to inquire whether coercive processes may not now be issued for the collection of Revenue which is not proposed to be either remitted or suspended. The Board has passed final orders regarding the grant of dry remissions in its Progress No. 323 dated 28th April 1897 but para 12 of this order seems to indicate that collections should be made without the application of coercive process. I beg to point out that in many cases where the yield has been 6 annas or more and where consequently

To C

Consequently no remission or postponement of revenue is proposed, the ryots are withholding payment of the Government demand, and I see no reason why coercive processes should not be at once issued in the case of such tracts.

Resolution

The Collector's inquiry is answered in the affirmative. Para 12 of Board's Proceedings No. 323 28.4.97 has reference only to tracts where there has been a failure of crop in respect of which remissions and suspensions have been sanctioned.
