The peti states as follows:-
On the 30th October last the peti presented his appeal petition to Govt with records & ~~has sent and received and received~~
On the 21st December last the Colls sent a letter to the peti asking for the peti's pension certificate & the peti informed that officer of the paper having been submitted to Govt with his appeal. The peti has no other means of support than his pension & one of his opponents who is a Sub Registrar has unjustly brought a suit against him & the peti learns that he has gone to Madras to exercise his influence there against the peti. If Govt ~~examines~~ goes through the records submitted by the peti & those which are with the Colls it will be seen that in 1976 the Colls was unjustly has the peti's grandfather deprived of the zamindari for the frauds practised by Vallayathievar, and the injustice done to the peti by depriving him of what he was enjoying for the last 20 years is due to the frauds practised by his 1st opponent. The ~~injustice~~ action taken by the pet authorities in depriving the peti of his pension has done him grievous wrong. Although the lower authorities had addressed the Govt in the peti's case they told him that the matter was still "under consideration" and this prevented him from representing his case direct to Govt. for fear that he might obtain justice at the hands of that body. On 11.2.96 & 24.9.96 the pet. requested the Tahsildar & the Coll. to inform him if any, and what, orders have been passed in his case and was told in reply that there were grounds of appeal and that for two months nothing was paid to the pet's opponents. The elder member in a Zamindari family is according to law entitled to more consideration than the others. The pet. has paid pension to the his brothers who were held appointments in the public service but who in their receipts declared that they held none. This therefore cannot bind the pet. The Govt. has already given justice in ~~arranging~~ setting aside the Board's order of 1897 & the Coll's order of 1861. The pet. prays that Govt. will now be pleased to cancel its order of the 9th Feb 96 passed in accordance with the unjust opinion of the Coll., direct the payment to the pet. of the whole pension of Rs 95 as usual & return the records submitted by him.
