Revenue DEPARTMENT. Cuddapah COLLECTOR'S OFFICE.
 Refor Sur No. 434797 Camp, Cuddapah 27.30th May 1897.
 FROM A. C. Tate Esquire
 THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT
 Revenue Department
 Madras
 SIR,
 Mr. R. J. Rungarao was in charge of the jam mal madugu Division until the 20th November 1896, when he was placed in charge of the Sub Division during the employment of Mr. Forbes as acting Collector and Mr. M. V.
 Narayana Sastry was appointed as acting Deputy Collector and put in charge of the jam mal madugu Division.
 After relieved by Mr. Forbes, Mr.
 Rungarao reverted to his appointment as Divisional officer, jam mal madugu on the 21st January 1897. Before he joined the Board wired that Government had permitted the retention of Narayana Sastry for famine duty.

He was accordingly put on that duty with effect from the date of his relief by Rungarao.

2. In G.O. No. 403 Mis of 23.1.97 - Government sanctioned the appointment of a Deputy Collector under Section 26 to relieve the Divisional officer in charge of the Jannamamadu Division of his ordinary work. By that time Rungarao having reverted as Divisional officer it would appear that the additional officer sanctioned (i.e.) Narayana Sawmy Pillai should relieve Rungarao of his ordinary work, setting the latter free to attend to famine duty. For this reason apparently Rungarao is shown in the Quarterly Civil list as on famine duty.

3. In para two of the G.O. referred to in the preceding paragraph however, Government informed Rungarao that he should proceed to Jannamamadu for the duty of relieving the the Divisional officer of his ordinary duties. In the Fort Saint George Gazette of 2nd Feb. 1897 Narayana Sawmy Pillai was appointed as temporary Deputy Collector and posted to general duty. Reading the postings of the two officers together, it would appear that Narayana Sawmy Pillai is the Divisional officer and Rungarao as the officer appointed to do his ordinary work. But in fact Narayana Sawmy Pillai has been doing famine work exclusively and Rungarao doing the duties of the Divisional officer.

4. A question has arisen as to the powers of the two officers in regard to punishment of subordinates and other duties devolving on the Divisional officer under the Famine Code.

Cf. Rengarao is to be considered as an officer doing the routine duties he will have to send up important papers to Narayanasawami Pillai and will have no power of any kind. This seems to be anomalous considering the relative ranks of the two officers in the Deputy Collector's grade.
It is at the same time necessary that Narayanasawami Pillai, who is on famine duty, should have power to punish subordinates to enforce obedience to his orders and exercise all the powers of the Divisional officer under the Famine Code. As the only possible arrangement, I have permitted Narayanasawami Pillai to do the duties of Divisional officer under the Famine Code and to and to impose fines on village officers to enforce obedience to his orders in famine matters, reporting to Rengarao cases deserving of severe punishment. But I am not certain that I am correct.

5. I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to inform me who is to be considered as the Divisional officer gammal- madu.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient

S. S. Roberts
