BOARD OF REVENUE (LAND REVENUE), No. 159, 13TH MAY 1897.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE (LAND REVENUE).

READ— the following letter from V. A. BRODIE, Esq., Collector of Gódávári, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated Cocanada, 3rd May 1897, Cur. No. 2016-Ver.:—

Rule 4 of the rules regarding the inspection and grant of copies of public documents, published as revised Board's Standing Order No. 226, lays down that "if the search for a document should prove fruitless, the fee will not be refunded; but the applicant can, on application, receive a certificate stating that the document or entry sought has not been found on record." I have the honour to enquire whether the application should be oral or written, and how the form of certificate should run. Under the existing practice, if the document is not found in the record, an endorsement to that effect is given to the party, as in the case of any other petition, without a further application either oral or written. If this is held sufficient (as I think it is), I would suggest that the rule may be amended accordingly by the omission of the words "on application."

RESOLUTION—No. 159, dated 13th May 1897.

Paragraph 4 of Standing Order No. 226 (Old Edition) will be amended as follows:—

For the words "but the applicant can, on application, receive a certificate," substitute "but the applicant will be furnished with a certificate."
