The Secretary to the Govt of India
Revenue & Agri. Dept.

Sir,

Adverting to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 834-158-1 dt 22nd April 1897, I am directed to state that the retention, for a further period of six months, of the temporary establishment sanctioned for arranging the records of the Madras Sessions Collectors offices, has been absolutely necessary and that the Board, in addition to supervising the work of the establishment from the beginning, has also to complete [illegible] Survey and Settlement Records relating to the Tanjore District. The Government of India may be moved to obtain the Sanction of the Secretary of State for the continuance of the temporary establishment sanctioned at the increased salaries per mensem which he has been allowed to draw under the Sanction conveyed

Note.

The Special Record establishment in the Collectors office, Madras was first sanctioned in October 1895 for a period of one year and was continued, first on a fluctuating scale and later on a fixed scale, up to the end of August 1897. The work to be done during one year is believed to be— from October 1895 to 31st March 1897— and the work remaining to be done the latter half of which is covered by the present estimate. The descriptive abstract to be submitted with the Report.
