OFFICE NOTE.

With reference to paragraph 3 of G.O. No. 142 Revenue, dated 6th March 1897, the Superintendent, Government Press, submits that the instruction to insert the notifications and rules in the South M. George Gazette was carried out, but with reference to paragraph 5 the Superintendent regrets to state that the instruction regarding issue for the District Gazette was lost sight of, and copies for the first issue with the District Gazette were not sent to Collectors until Friday the 28th May, in the hopes that they would be in time to be circulated with the June District Gazette. The 2nd issue will be sent in time to be circulated with the July District Gazette, but this will be a month later than Government intend these notifications and rules should be circulated.

2. Although the Superintendent lost sight of this paragraph 5, the foreman of the Gazette department has a standing instruction that all Abkari and similar notifications and rules are to be issued twice in the District Gazettees, according to Section 69 of the Madras Abkari Act I of 1886, and he is therefore responsible for this delay. The Superintendent has fined him Rs. 5, and warned him that he will be reduced from his post if such a delay is caused again.

3. The Superintendent regrets the trouble that may be caused to Government, if it is deemed necessary to postpone the date (1st July 1897) when these rules are to come into force.
