NOTE FOR THE SECRETARY.

707th 'posting to Crimbstone seems to be a mistake. You must have confused his case with that of Elor.
Heardie whose services are required for Transvaal proceeding whom a letter was sent to the Board which has not yet been replied to.
Forster's case has been settled recently.

Revenue Board Office, (Land Revenue),
MADRAS,

16 Dec 1896.

MADRAS

Stolery and directed to submit his Smeekney's approval the accompanying posting statement - Smeekney goes on leave in continuation of the holidays and arrangements must be made for working the S. Comibator forest from & after that date.

The Forest Member has already reported that Foulkes was available for the special duty in Cochin, but it was stipulated that he should be telegraphed at once, and ^{unless there is} ~~unless there is~~ a chance of his immediate orders on this matter, it has been considered advisable to post him to S. Combatine - The Dep. is short of officers and now that Brongham is to return in Jan: 57, it is difficult to provide for all the district-changes - The Forest Member was not aware that Brongham would be lost to the dep't so soon, or he would not have agreed to spare Foulkes.

Under the circ: I am to say that the nomination of Foulkes for Cochin need not be withdrawn, but I am to suggest that a very small division should be asked for - If Foulkes goes to Cochin, the Commr. is prepared to allow both divisions of Combatine to be put under Lushington, to D.F.O. N. Coimbatore.

I send this to you and not to Stuart as there is a chance of your being able to take His Excellency's orders at once today.

Yours sincerely

Reelean

Revenue Secretariat,

17th Dec. 189 .

My dear Carr;

It is not possible to get very early orders in regard to Foulkes' deputation passed. The Durbar has to be consulted &c. His Excellency has passed the minute of posting accordingly.

Yours sincerely.

Revenue Secretariat,

18/12/1896.

My dear Carr

Yours 20.16th about Faulkes.

Your letter was delivered to me in Council on Tuesday and as I was under the impression that Faulkes app^r w^o leave to be reported to the Ex^o of India ^{that it} and w^o take leave then before he can ~~send~~ to Cochran issuing the minute of I let the minute you sent up? which will have to be found. I find however he cancelled. Will you reference to the paper that kindly let me know what his app? and only he reports you the N^o 1st with in for information and that the matter.

he will have to go to Cochran at once. It will run through that there is no use in your doing

Re: Mr Foulkes' posting to
S. Comibatore No.

From

Dated

H.E. the Governor

FOR ORDERS.

The minute flagged A is resubmitted to H.E. the Governor with reference to that flagged B, G.O. 869. Pol. of 19th Dec^r 1896 and the B.P. in Cus 9546 for favour of cancelling that portion of it which relates to the posting of Mr Foulkes to South Comibatore.

When the first minute was submitted for H.E.'s approval it was thought that some time would elapse before a formal reply was received from H.H. the Rajah's Darbar on the subject of Mr Foulkes deputation to Cochin. On the return of the minute from H.E., however, it was found that the Darbar's decision had just before been received in the Political Dep.
At about the same time a communication was also received from

Secy
I believe the first minute was sent to the Secy with a D.O. from the Board when the Executive Council was sitting, & that the Secy submitted it to H.E. before he was aware that the Cochin Darbar had ~~refused~~ signified its desire to secure Mr.
Foulkes. That gentleman's services having been ~~definitely~~ offered to the Darbar in G.O. no. 819 Pol. of 20th 11. 96, the reply telegram of the 11th December settled the question & Mr Foulkes' deputation was decided upon in G.O.
no. 869 of 19th Dec^r 1896; the papers being dealt with in the Political Dep.; the Secy did not know that a reply from Cochin had been received, until after the minute had been signed

Yes. I was under the ^{impression} that Mr Foulkes w^d not be waiting in Cochin in your letter time. 11-187

C. 9/1/97.

Mr. Sturrock stating that unless Cochin required Mr. Foulkes' services immediately, he could not be spared.
Mr. Sturrock was thereupon asked to communicate direct with the Resident on the point and as the minute could neither be issued nor be re-submitted to H.E. for cancellation until a reply was received from the Resident and other arrangements made if necessary for posting an officer to S. Combalore to succeed Mr. Gass, it was allowed to lie over.

Mr. Foulkes having been relieved since, so as to enable him to join his appointment in Cochin at the end of the holidays and the posting of Mr. Womlerg to succeed Mr. Gass in S. Combalore approved by H.E. the minute in question is resubmitted to H.E. with the request that that portion of it which has reference to Mr. Foulkes' posting to S. Combalore may be cancelled.
