SIR,

I have the honour to state that the question has been raised by the Treasury officer Ganjam, whether the Famine batta sanctioned in Government Order N^o 135, dated 4 March 1897 may be paid to Government servants on Temporary Establishments such as those noted on the margin.

With regard to classes 1 to 5 mentioned above I would observe that they are Establishments sanctioned regularly every year on the same rates of pay as are given to officers on the permanent establishment and they are only temporary because their

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following letter from the Accountant-General, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 28th April 1897, No. I.A.C.B./189 G.T. :—

I have the honour to state that the question has been raised by the Treasury Officer, Ganjám, whether the famine batta sanctioned in G.O., No. 135, dated 4th March 1897, may be paid to Government servants on temporary establishments, such as those noted on the margin.

1. Revenue Process Service establishment.
2. Emigration establishment.
3. Judicial Process Service establishment.
4. Traffic Registration establishment.
5. Temporary Revenue establishment attached to the Deputy Tahsildar's office, Aska.
6. Temporary peons recently sanctioned as per Board's Proceedings, Mis. No. 5661, dated 24th December 1896, to work under the Revenue Inspectors newly entertained in the offices of Tahsildar Berhampur, and Deputy Tahsildar, Aska.

2. With regard to classes 1 to 5 mentioned above, I would observe that they are establishments sanctioned regularly every year on the same rates of pay as are given to officers on the permanent establishment, and they are only temporary because their service is not pensionable and their number is variable: in their case, therefore, the same reason exists for the grant of famine batta that exists in the case of permanent men. But the last establishment has been recently sanctioned since the rise has taken place in prices, and it is possible that in their case the rates of pay may have been fixed in view of this circumstance.

I have accordingly to request instructions whether in all these cases famine batta should be allowed.

ORDER—No. 303, Revenue, dated 6th May 1897.

Miscellaneous.

The Government is of opinion that famine batta should be paid to all the six classes mentioned by the Accountant-General.
