No. 594, dated Calcutta, the 19th February 1897.

From—J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department,

To—The Director General, Indian Medical Service.

I am directed to inform you that, with a view to lessen the strain on the Indian Medical Service occasioned by a number of officers being required for work connected with plague and famine, the Government of India sanction the employment of volunteers from the Army Medical Service on famine and plague duty. I am to add that the volunteers employed will be granted a special allowance of Rs. 300 a month in addition to Indian pay and allowances.
