2 BOARD OF REVENUE (LAND REVENUE), No. 180, 22ND MAY 1897.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE (LAND REVENUE).

READ—the following letter from H. BRADLEY, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated 11th May 1897, Ref. on Cur. No. 1675-Rev.:—

With reference to Board's Proceedings, No. 98, dated 29th March 1897, I have the honour to enquire whether registers of karnams' attendance should not be opened and maintained also in the offices of all Deputy Tahsildars who have been entrusted with collection and miscellaneous revenue work. I am of opinion that the registers should be maintained in their offices also.

RESOLUTION—No. 180, dated 22nd May 1897.

The Board agrees with the Collector in considering that registers in the form prescribed in Board's Proceedings, No. 98, dated 29th March 1897, should be maintained in Deputy Tahsildars' offices also. The register in a Deputy Tahsildar's office should be independent of that in a taluk office. In other words, the entries in the one need not be copied into the other. The Deputy Tahsildar's register as well as the taluk register should be placed before the officer conducting the annual jamabandi.
