An appeal from a clerk in the Madura Collectorate who was dismissed.

C. Nos 4739 and 4831 of 1897

For orders.

The Hon^{ble} Mr. J. Grose C.I.E.

With the first of the above Currents, the Board of Revenue submits an appeal petition from S. Fernando Pillai who was dismissed by the Collector of Madura from the post of Magisterial clerk in the Collector's office, for having ^{made} used his official position to endeavour to influence the decisions of subordinate Magistrates.

The facts of the Case are these.
In January 1897, the Taluk Magistrate of Madura, K.M.
Swaminath Aiyar, produced before the Collector two letters which he ^{had} received from the petitioner in connection with some Criminal Cases which he had to try. One was written by the petr on the 17th June 1897 on behalf of certain persons who were charged before the Magistrate with offence under sections 427 & 431 of the Penal Code and it concluded with the following words:

filed C. & E.

filed G

21/6/97

I hope you will deal leniently with the ignorant village folk who seem to have acted bona fide throughout. I shall be glad if you could see your way to let them off. The prosecution evidence I hear is full of inconsistencies and improbabilities.

The other letter was written on the 6th January 1893, and ran as follows:— I have not hitherto had an opportunity of making a request of you but I have now to avail myself of it to ask you to try and punish Ariyanayagam the accused concerned in a case under sec 498 before you. The fellow is a notorious blackguard and I have very often heard of his wicked ways. . . . I shall be satisfied if you give him even a nominal punishment. . .
. . . . I don't know the Complainant but as soon as I heard that Ariyanayagam has got into a scrape I did not wish to let slip this opportunity.

opportunity of writing to you.
The town sub. magistrate of Madura, G. Jagannatha Aiyar also stated before the Collector that he too had received communication from the petitioners in connection with Criminal Cases for him, on three occasions.
The petr admitted that he wrote the two letters addressed to Swaminatha Aiyar and also that he had written to Jagannatha Aiyar on or three occasions, but added that he had particularly asked the latter not to go out of his way but to decide as he thought proper.

file D

On these facts, the Collector Mr Twigg ordered the petr dismissal, saying that he previous record and his present work in the office are not such as to entitle him to consideration.

The Board of Revenue, on appeal, having confirmed the Collector's order, the petr now comes up to Govt.

He thinks that at most a month's suspension would be a suitable punishment and requests that if it is considered impossible to reinstate him as Magisterial Clerk in the Madura Collector's Office, he may be ~~transferred~~ reduced to a lower grade and transferred to some other District.

It appears that the petitioner was formerly employed in the Nilgiri Collector's Office.
In 1889, while acting as English Head Clerk in that office, he was asked to produce certain private papers belonging to a dismissed clerk which were in the drawer of his table at the time. Petitioner denied having them but subsequently admitted his lie and produced the papers. For this, he was directed to ~~revert~~ revert to the post of record-keeper. This degradation apparently worked on his mind and he eventually quit in his resignation which was accepted by the Collector. Subsequently he wanted to ~~draw~~ draw his resignation but he was not allowed to do so. The Board of Revenue to which the petition thereupon preferred an appeal declined to interfere on his behalf, ~~and~~ expressed its surprise that ~~he~~ he was not dismissed for his deliberate lying and remarked as follows:—

'Prompt dismissal was 'Certainly what he merited
'and he was fortunate in being 'ultimately allowed to resign this is evidently the bad record to which the Collector ^{Madura} refers in his order of dismissal ~~or it may be~~ that petitioner's conduct was antecedently bad in Madura itself. ~~He does not appear~~ ~~how he got employment in Madura~~ ^{anyhow it} ~~anyhow it~~ submits that his conduct in writing to the District Paluk Magistrate about cases before them, he himself being ~~Magistrate~~ Magistrate Clerk in the latter Office was unpardonably scandalous etc
