G. No 4460 of 1897.

For orders.

Please see note under G. 534^{ms} dated 28th January 1897. In that G. 6 the Board of Revenue was asked to ascertain and report the cause of the reluctance of the Amindari teachers to undergo training on the mainland to report and how the Collector proposed to increase the educational facilities of the islands.

With the Current read alone, the Board of Revenue submits the Collector's letter on the subject. The Collector attributes the reluctance of the teachers to go and live on the mainland ^{at Calicut} ~~for some~~ time to ^{their insular} ~~the~~ ignorance and prejudices of the islanders and to meet the difficulty makes the following proposal :-

1st That instead of ^{existing} local teachers Capable youths may be selected for being trained as teachers.

2nd That the Candidates should be sent not to the Calicut Training College but to the Training School at Bangalore ⁺ where a Malayalam teacher may be appointed.

+ It had appear that the islanders do not object to Mangalore for at this place they can meet their countrymen which is not the case at Calicut

* With regard to the language on medium of the instruction

The Collector proposes to meet the cost of C/16/1897.

entertaining & the Malayalam teacher by paying the candidates only Rs 5 p.m and utilising the remaining Rs 7 for paying the teacher.

The Board is of opinion that the Collector's proposal may be given a trial.

~~Orders are requested to be issued for the original proposals as modified by the Collector and supported by the Board to be reproduced.~~

It is submitted that the proposals may be approved. It is further submitted whether for the reasons given in the marginal note another ought not to be taught besides Malayalam.

The question of the language these people are the taught hardly comes up for discussion now unless the change will induce these people to turn to the mainland. From my experience of the Island I think Malayalam more likely the generally useful. The proposals of the Govt. seem unobjectionable.

11.6.97

Ulls.
The Collector reports that Canara is the most accessible as it is the language in which the Govt.
officials converse with the islanders.
It is also the main mode as well as in the Island. The Govt. decided to teach Malayalam before Mr. Light in his report 1895 reported in favour of Canara.
Also that the then Mr. Parn considered that the islanders of the island were nearer to Malayalam & that what was wanted was the easiest language they could understand knowledge & not the easiest means of communication with the mainland. He also got agreed. vide G.O. 576 of 1894.

In 1875 Mr. Connelman reported that Malayalam teaching was a failure. (vide report No. 40 of G.O. 106 of Jan 1896.) The Govt. however thought the improvement in the islanders' English was not sufficient.

In view of the present report of the Collector I submit that there seems to be no reason to alter the present policy. The discontinuance of the present proposals will entail the disadvantage of islanders going to mainland to learn Malayalam.
No doubt Malayalam is what they ought to learn to be able to do so. But it is clear that Canara is what they do want to learn in practice.

Ulls.
11.6.97

The spoken language is a dialect of Malayalam & the hearing is required for some elementary knowledge for the people not further than we can give them in Malayalam. experience shows that the people do not want to learn in practice.
